Office of Assistant Treasurer U. S.,

New York, April 15, 1884.

My dear Sir

The proof sets ~~x~~) gold dollars referred to in your note of Apr. 8 have not yet been rec'd.

I write to notify you, fearing that possibly they may have gone astray.

That "Savage" story is a good one - Of course the Silver dollars would not do - they come easily to hand.

Very truly Yours
Thos. A. Nelson

[Abstract:] Proof sets & gold dollars…

Office of Assistant Treasurer U.S.,
New York,
April 15, 1884

My dear sir

The proof sets & gold dollars referred to in your note of A.M. 8 have not yet been rec'd.

I write to notify you, fearing that possibly they may have gone astray.

That "sauvage" story is a good one – of course the silver dollars would not do – they could easily be felt.

Very truly yours,
Thos. C. Acton
